A LITTLE MORE LIGHT. A LOT TO COME HOME TO.

High windows and vaulted ceilings give the living room a bright, open feel. Settle in by the bookcase, gather around the dining-room gas fireplace, or take dinner onto the deck. This Kent home makes good use of every one of its 1,330 square feet.

Three bedrooms and two full baths share one level, with stainless appliances and gas cooking in the kitchen. The primary suite adds a walk-in closet and a three-head shower. Fresh interior paint, professional staging and refreshed landscaping bring it all together.

Outside, a fully fenced yard offers room to garden and enjoy the outdoors. A two-car garage and solar installed in 2025 round out the picture. Ask me for the solar-system information and current transaction terms.
